CAMERON NEWS

Louie and Cleveland Johnston made a trip to San Jon the first of the week to get coal. They each worked four horses.

Jess Creelins is using a drag to get the snow off his grass so his cattle can get to it.

J. Z. Isler, Halie Leach, Marvin Hendrix and his father, each made a trip to Clovis the first of the week, with their teams.

The Clovis mail reached Cameron January 17th for the first time since January 3rd.

While coming from San Jon with a load of coal the last of the week, Rome Isler's wagon wheel dropped in a chuck hole and broke the axle.

Man Ray returned home a few days ago from the training camp.

Arnold Bunch has returned from a trip to Phenix, Ari., where he went with his mother to visit relatives. He says the flowers are blooming there.

Phil and Floyd Mote are hauling feed from Roy Chapman's place for J. Z. Isler.

WANTED TO BE HIMSELF

A speaker had been telling a Sunday school class that worthy ideals form a large part of Christianity. To make sure that the children knew what he was talking about he asked Tommy the following question:

"Which would you rather be, Christopher Columbus, who discovered America and thus made possible this great United States, or Abraham Lincoln, who saved the nation in its hour of greatest peril?"

Tommy pondered deeply and then answered shyly:

"Please, sir, I think I had rather be myself. These two fellows are both dead."

DOES CANNONADING CAUSE RAINFALL

The fact that rain stopped falling along the battlefields of France as soon as the armistice was signed may or may not have been due to the cessation of cannonading by the big guns, but you can't make lots of people believe otherwise. The artillery kept the clouds constantly agitated and shook the moisture all out of them, and as there is only a certain amount of moisture in the air that surrounds this old globe in its entirety, where some places receive an excessive or unnatural precipitation other places seem to be shorted on rainfall in order to balance nature's books on precipitation. It stopped raining in France after the fighting ceased and it began to rain in the western portion of the Mississippi Valley that had been short on rain during the war. Those are facts; figure it to suit yourself.—Slaton Slatonite.

The Woman the Germans Shot. Julia Arthur as Edith Cavell the British Red Cross Nurse in "The Cavell Case." It is the story of Edith Cavell, the British Red Cross Nurse, whose shooting injured the whole world. Edith Cavell was not a spy—she was not even accused of being one. But when Brand Whitlock pleaded for her life, he was answered in words that the world will never forget: "I am sorry we haven't got four or five English Women too shot." The shot that killed Edith Cavell was "the shot which rang around the world and raised an army over night." The dramatic and appealing story of a great and noble woman whom the world will never forget will be presented at the Lyceum Theatre, Wednesday, January 23rd.

"SPORTING LIFE"

A Paramount Artcraft Special—and when we say "Special" we speak Webster's language: "Distinguished by some unusual quality; Uncommon; Extraordinary; Especially distinguished by superior excellence and importance."

Things You Should Know About "Sporting Life"

The World Famous National Sporting Club is reproduced to the smallest detail. You see the ring of gladiators in action there.

"Sporting Life" has a love theme that will touch and warm the cockles of your heart. The two sisters, one of whom love a prize fighter and the other an English lord, are delightfully captivating heroines.

"Sporting Life" is produced on an enormous scale—thousands of people are in the cast and sensational effects are employed. They will make you gasp.
